Hotel Marinedda Thalasso & SPA,
Where Hospitality Feels Like Home.

What truly makes a hotel unforgettable? Is it the lavish décor, the mouthwatering cuisine, or the luxurious amenities? Sure, those aspects matter.

But the real magic lies in something more profound: it's how you feel when you are there. It's about feeling genuinely welcomed, valued, and cared for from the moment you step through the doors.

Exceptional hospitality isn't merely flawless service; it's an art form. It's the warmth in a friendly greeting, the thoughtful touches that feel tailor-made just for you, and the passion that turns a simple stay into a cherished memory. True hospitality makes you feel special, appreciated, and utterly at home, whether it's a glamorous five-star resort or a charming boutique hotel.

We have found a place that captures all that and more: Hotel Marinedda Thalasso & SPA in stunning Sardinia.

What sets it apart? Yes, the location is spectacular. Nestled along the dazzling Costa Rossa, perched above the pristine white sands of La Marinedda Beach, and offering breathtaking views of the Gulf of Asinara. And yes, the facilities are outstanding. From two gorgeous outdoor pools with panoramic views to the rejuvenating Thalasso & SPA Centre l'Elicriso, every corner of this place invites you to relax and indulge.

However, the true heartbeat of Hotel Marinedda is its charismatic General Manager, Alessandro Fumagalli. With over 30 years of experience, Alessandro is more than just a manager. From the moment you meet him, his charm and sunny disposition make you feel like you have known him forever.

His passion for hospitality goes beyond professionalism; it's all about making every guest feel like a part of his extended Italian family.
